1. Introduction

This code of conduct, as adopted, applies to all those employed in schools.

This code is designed to set out required standards and help employees understand the working relationship between themselves, their managers, colleagues, pupils and members of the public to whom they deliver a service.

Employees must comply with this Code as it forms part of their terms and conditions of employment. The School believe that employees are responsible for their actions. Head Teachers/Governors/Line Managers will ensure that staff are fully briefed on the content and have access to a copy of the Code of Conduct, it is however the responsibility of all employees to read the Code. If any of the provisions contained within the Code of Conduct, related Codes of Practice or Policies are not fully understood, then the employee must, in their own interest, seek clarification from their Line Manager.

If an employee's actions or behaviour fall below the standards set out in this Code, then the School may take formal disciplinary action which may include the full range of disciplinary sanctions. Serious misconduct, criminal offences or other acts committed outside of working hours, which bring the School into disrepute or impact on the employee's ability to carry out their role, may also result in formal disciplinary action being taken, in accordance with the School procedures.

2. General Principles

All employees are expected to perform their duties with honesty, integrity, impartiality and objectivity in order to give the highest possible standards of service and avoid any conduct which could compromise them and the School. Therefore, this code sets out required standards as referred to in section 1 paragraph 2 above.

Employees should comply with the rules and procedures set by the School in relation to actions and behaviours.

Employees working with young people are in a position of great trust. Serious breaches of that trust; assault or sexual misconduct or deliberate disregard of policies and procedures meant to safeguard vulnerable service users and other recipients of School services will be regarded as potential gross misconduct.

Employees have a responsibility for ensuring a safe learning environment for children and young people within the school/establishment.

Employees who believe that a colleague is acting in a way which might be harmful to the school or individual pupils, should raise the matter with the Head Teacher/Line Manager/designated person for child protection.

Employees should have regard to the School's Behaviour Management Policy to provide guidance and support in dealing with behaviour issues as they arise.

Employees should not demean or undermine pupils, their parents, carers or colleagues or display any discriminatory behaviour.

Employees should comply with statutory provisions, which support the well-being and development of pupils.

Employees must not enter into a personal relationship with pupils at the school or conduct improper relationships with pupils through, for example mobile phone, e-mail and Internet chat rooms/websites.

Employees should not bring the reputation and standing of the School into disrepute.

3. Working Relationships

All employees have a right to be treated with dignity at work. Staff should always respect their colleagues, the pupils and the reputation of the School.

All employees are expected to follow the School's policies on equality and diversity. All forms of harassment, including racial and sexual harassment, and harassment on the grounds of disability, religion, sexuality, age, gender, political affiliation or membership of a trade union are unacceptable.

All forms of bullying, including threats or verbal aggression towards colleagues is unacceptable and will be dealt with seriously by the School.

If there are work related issues, which cannot be resolved informally with another colleague, the Line Manager should be advised.

Employees should not be involved in decisions relating to any discipline, promotion, performance development review, or pay progression of any employee who is a relative, or with whom they have a close personal relationship. If an employee develops a close personal relationship where a conflict of interest might arise they should notify their Line Manager/HR Provider.

Employees should maintain an effective and professional working relationship with their colleagues and Line Manager.

Employees should participate in initiatives designed to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of service delivery.

School/Statutory policies, procedures and codes of practice should be followed at all times.

An employee should never conceal a matter that should be reported, or damage, alter or falsify any document, form or record.

It is the responsibility of the employee that if their personal circumstances change, i.e. change of address or home telephone number, they should inform a member of the school's/service's Administrative team/their Line Manager and make the relevant changes via Resource Link or inform Employment Services if necessary.

4. Dress and Personal Appearance

All employees act as ambassadors for the school and role models for the pupils, therefore an acceptable standard of dress and appearance is required for the workplace.

Whilst at work, employees must be clean and tidy and ensure good personal hygiene. Where particular clothing is provided for health, safety and hygiene and/or uniform purposes, it must be worn. Name badges and identity passes must be worn whilst on school premises.

All employees are expected to wear smart dress at all times. Clothes should provide sufficient bodily cover not to be offensive and should not present a risk to health and safety. With this in mind the following guidelines must be adhered to:

- No flip flops or mule type shoes
- No miniskirts or shorts (dress shorts to the knee are permitted)
- No sleeveless vest tops or t shirts
- No low cut blouses, shirts or tops and no thin spaghetti string tops
- No jeans or denim skirt/shorts
- No see through clothing

Employees engaged in teaching physical activities with the children are expected to wear appropriate clothing i.e. Training shoes, track suits etc. whilst undertaking this activity. However it is expected that employees change in to smart dress as soon as is practical.

Within these general guidelines, clothes worn for cultural, religious or traditional reasons, whether on a day to day basis or to mark particular occasions will normally be acceptable at the Head Teacher's discretion.

Employees who have tattoos must ensure that tattoos with inappropriate wording and pictures are covered with clothing at all times. Employees are expected to cover any tattoos if asked to do so by the Head Teacher.

5. Working with Children and Young People

5.1. Infatuations

Occasionally, a child or young person may develop an infatuation with an adult who works with them. When this does occur, words or actions may be misinterpreted. An employee, who becomes aware that a child or young person is developing an infatuation, should discuss this at the earliest opportunity with their Line Manager so appropriate action can be taken to avoid any hurt, distress or embarrassment.

5.2. Social Contacts

Employees should not seek to have social contact with a child or young person or their families unless the reason for this contact has been firmly established and agreed with their Line Manager. If a parent or child seeks to establish social contact, or if this occurs coincidentally, the employee should exercise their professional judgement in making a response but should always discuss the situation with their Line Manager. Such examples could be related to internet social networking sites (i.e. being asked to be a 'friend' on 'Facebook')

Employees should gain permission from their Line Manager if there is a need for them to give their personal details such as home/mobile phone number; home or email address to a child or young person. Under normal circumstances this would be discouraged because of the potential implications from such an action. The process of gaining permission examines the reason for the need and allows it to be 'noted' - in the interest of seeking to protect the employee.

5.3. Physical Contact

There are occasions when it is entirely appropriate for employees to have some physical contact with the child or young person with whom they are working, for example those who teach PE, Games, Drama or who offer music tuition. However, it is crucial that in all circumstances, employees should only touch children in ways which are appropriate to their professional or agreed role and responsibilities.

When physical contact is made with a child this should be in response to their needs at the time, of limited duration and appropriate to their age, stage of development, gender, ethnicity and background.

In all circumstances where a child or young person initiates inappropriate physical contact, employees should sensitively deter the child and help them understand the importance of personal boundaries and must always report such circumstances to their Line Manager.

5.4. Sexual Contact

It is an offence for a person over 18 to have a sexual relationship with a child under 18 where that person is in a position of trust in respect of that child, even if the relationship is consensual. This applies where the child is in full-time education and the person works in the same establishment as the child, even if s/he does not teach the child. The sexual activity referred to does not just involve physical contact it may also include non-contact activities.

Any sexual activity between an employee and a child or young person with whom they work may be regarded as a criminal offence and will always be a matter for disciplinary action.

6. Working and Contact with the Media

Employees should refer requests for this type of 'information' to their Line Manager in the first instance.

Employees who write or give interviews must ensure that they make it clear that they are not representing the School's view and do not bring the School into disrepute.

They should not publicise material which is confidential or against the School's/any employee's interest.

7. Working with Councillors and Political Neutrality

Employees should never directly or indirectly seek the support of any Councillor when they are making an application for further employment within the Local Authority.

Employees must not use members to bypass formal Local Authority procedures in any way.

If an employee develops a close personal relationship where a conflict of interest might arise they should notify their Line Manager.

Employees must not allow their personal or political opinions to interfere with their work. Certain posts are 'politically restricted' and subject to statutory requirements. Teachers, Head Teachers and Lecturers are exempt from political restrictions under s2 (10) LGHA, and will not be regarded as holding a politically restricted post whatever their role or remuneration level.

8. Working and the Law

Employees have a duty at all times to uphold the law.

Teaching is a notifiable occupation, which means that the police report any conviction or caution given to a teacher to the Department for Education (DFE).

Offences involving a risk of harm to children or to vulnerable adults are considered by the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) All other convictions and cautions are passed to The Teaching Agency which has a role in determining if a caution or criminal offence is relevant to a teacher's registration.

An employee should inform their Line Manager if they are charged with any offence, including driving offences and if they receive any criminal conviction. The Line Manager will then consider if any follow up action is necessary and decide if the matter should be referred and considered at a disciplinary hearing. Some offences would be classed as serious and would fall under the definition of gross misconduct.

Employees must comply with the requirements of statutory bodies relating to the examination, assessment and evaluation of pupil achievement and attainment. They must not alter, falsify or add to; scripts for SAT's, and should not provide unauthorised photocopies of forthcoming examination papers to students.

9. Working Safely

It is the duty of all employees to take reasonable care of their health and safety and that of others who are affected by what they do or do not do. They should also ensure that they keep up to date with health and safety guidance as provided by the employer.

Employees working in one to one situations with children and young people may be more vulnerable to allegations. They should therefore assess the need to have another adult present, and consider the location and facilities to ensure their own security and safety and that of the child/young person.

An employee should use any safety clothing and equipment provided by the employer that is needed in their role and ensure that the equipment is not misused, neglected or damaged.

An employee must report any accident or "near misses" they have at work as soon as possible and accurately complete an accident report form, this includes verbal and physical assaults.

Employees must take reasonable care of pupils under their supervision with the aim of ensuring their health and safety. (Also refer to 'Policy & Guidance on Educational Visits' available within the School).

Alcohol should not be consumed during the working day unless agreed beforehand by the appropriate Line Manager for a specific occasion. Employees should make sure that if they do drink alcohol at any time when they are off duty, it does not affect their ability to carry out their work or in any way damage the reputation of the School.

Employees should not take any non-medical substance, such as drugs, that may affect their performance at work. Prescribed drugs may be taken but if a GP gives an employee any medication that may have a negative effect on their performance, they should tell their Line Manager in confidence. The use of illegal substances may not only result in formal action, including the possibility of summary dismissal, but may also be reported to the police.

The Local Authority operates a No Smoking Policy. This applies to all Local Authority premises and those where Council services are provided. It also applies when transporting service users in Local Authority or private vehicles and to visits to service users in their own homes or other establishments.

10. Gifts

An employee's actions must not be influenced by offers of gifts or hospitality and must not give the impression to another member of staff, parent, pupil or service user that they are influenced in this way.

Employees should only accept gifts of a modest and token value (i.e. less than £10).

Employees should not accept a gift of hospitality from anyone who is, or may be in the foreseeable future, tendering for any contract with the School or may be seeking employment with the School. Employees should decline any offer of hospitality if they think the giver has an ulterior motive.

If employees accept any bribes from an individual (e.g. parent) that provides the School with goods or services, they may be guilty of corruption. Employees should inform their Head Teacher/Line Manager if anyone tries to bribe them or if there is evidence of improper behaviour by others.

The giving of gifts or rewards to children or young people should be part of an agreed policy for supporting positive behaviour or recognising particular achievements. The giving of a personal gift for a specific reason is only acceptable practice where, in line with the agreed policy, the employee has first discussed this with their Line Manager.

Employees should be cautious when selecting children and/or young people for specific activities or privileges to avoid perceptions of favouritism or unfairness. Methods and criteria for selection should always be transparent and subject to scrutiny.

11. Working with Integrity

If a school wishes to sponsor an event or service, no employee, relative or friend should benefit from such sponsorship in a direct way without there being full disclosure to, and prior approval by the Head Teacher/Line Manager.

Employees are required to declare to the Line Manager, any pecuniary interests which could conflict with the School's interests, including any Directorships or equivalent position, which they may hold.

Deliberately giving false information on claims such as mileage, travel/subsistence allowances, self-certification forms or attendance records will be deemed as fraud.

All documents/forms/records should be completed honestly.

Activities/private interests/outside employment, which employees may participate in when they are not at work, must not bring the School into disrepute.

Employees should not put themselves in a position which could result in public confidence in the School being weakened.

12. Working with Money and Property

Employees should ensure that they use school funds entrusted to them in a responsible and lawful manner.

Financial and Accounting procedures within the School should be followed at all times.

The School's property such as stationery, photocopiers etc. may be used for School business only, unless permission has been given for other use. Facilities such as telephones, mobile phones, Internet, e-mail and other ICT facilities can only be used in accordance with the School/Council policy e.g. use of facilities by recognised trade unions and/or with the permission of the Line Manager.

Employees should follow School's policy and procedures on computer virus protection. A virus, which is maliciously hidden in a programme, can corrupt and damage computer files and discs. Employees need to be made aware that if they knowingly introduce a computer virus, this is not just a contravention of expected behaviour within their employment, they are breaking the law.

Employees should ensure that they follow the schools security procedures in relation to the use of computers and the proper management of computer held information. Particular care must be taken to observe established procedures when using passwords and logging on and off. Employees should never share a password or similar security device that may lead to unauthorised access to the Schools systems or property.

Employees should gain proper prior approval from the owner of the copyright before copying computer programmes (software) and other literature for personal use as it is an offence (Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988).

Employees should return any property or equipment which they have been allowed to borrow by the school as soon as they leave their job or when requested by their Line Manager.

13. Recruitment and Selection and Other Employment Matters

If employees are involved in recruitment and selection they are expected to ensure that all appointments are made strictly on the basis of merit in accordance with the School's recruitment and selection process. Employees should not be involved in an appointment where they are related to an applicant, or have a close personal relationship outside work with him/her.

Any reference provided by a Line Manager in relation to another employee on behalf of the School, whether it is written or verbal, should be factual and give an honest representation of the experience, skills, abilities and/or other qualities of that employee.

Employees must not misuse or misrepresent their professional position, qualifications or experience, nor should they falsify a reference.

14. Outside Commitments and Private Work

Employees should notify their Line Manager before taking up any outside employment. The Line Manager should assess if the nature of the work might be seen to conflict with the interests of the School and advise accordingly.

Any secondary employment cannot be carried out by employees during the time the school employs them (i.e. when they should be in attendance at the school/undertaking work for the school under their contract of employment for those specific hours), which includes periods of sickness absence.

Employees should follow the appropriate guidance as referred to in section 12, paragraph 6 above on the ownership of intellectual property or copyright created during their employment.

15. Disclosure of Information and Confidentiality

Employees may have access to confidential information about children and young people in order to undertake their responsibilities. In some circumstances they may have access to or be given highly sensitive or private information. These details must be kept confidential at all times and only shared when it is in the interests of the child to do so. They should gain the permission of the Line Manager before disclosing this information to any unauthorised party, in order to protect the employee from any accusations of inappropriate use.

Information held by the School in relation to staff and pupils may be subject to the provision of the Data Protection Act. Employees should never put themselves in the position where the disclosure of information puts themselves, a colleague, a pupil or the reputation of the school/service at risk.

Employees should respect the confidentiality of School/Service meetings and the contents of any confidential School/Service documents.

16. Being a Member of an Organisation

Employees should ensure that their membership or involvement with any external organisation does not lead to an actual or perceived (maybe because of its nature and maybe because it is in the 'public domain') conflict of interest with their position as an employee of the school, or conflict with the school's policies/objectives or damage to the school's reputation. It is important to avoid any perception that advice, guidance, or decisions for which they are responsible could be influenced by their membership of a particular organisation. This does not apply to membership of a trade union.

17. Whistleblowing

Under the Whistleblowing policy and procedure, if an employee believes that there has been any fraud, irregularity, improper behaviour towards a pupil, corruption or the law has been broken, they should report such incidents under this policy.

The Whistleblowing policy is intended to encourage and enable employees to raise concerns safely and without fear of retribution within the School rather than overlooking a problem. The School will not tolerate harassment or victimisation and will take action to protect any employee when they have raised a concern in good faith. Similarly no employee must treat another employee less favourably on the grounds that that employee has, intends, or is suspected of doing anything under the Whistleblowing procedures.

18. Review

This code of conduct will be kept under review in the light of recommendations and guidance issued nationally in relation to standards of conduct in public life and revised as necessary.
